

“Discovering Democracy in the 18th-Century Atlantic”

Lecture by Dr. Wim Klooster

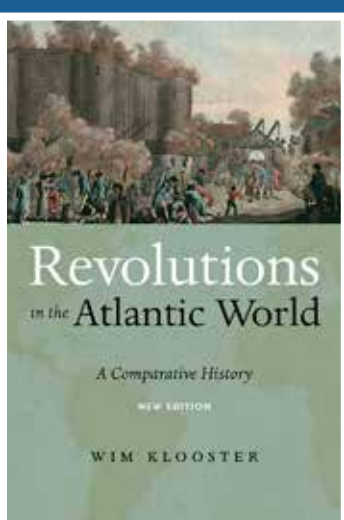

Monday • JUNE 4, 2018 • 6:30 pm
Utah State University
Eccles Conference Center, Room 207
Open to the Public
Reception and Book Signing Following

In conjunction with the 2018 Bennion Teachers' Workshop for the Perpetuation of Democratic Principles

Dr. Wim Klooster, Professor of History at Clark University, specializes in comparative historical examinations of the Atlantic world. A native of the Netherlands, Klooster focuses his research on Dutch migration, trade, and settlement in the Caribbean and such far-ranging topics as smuggling, slavery revolts, and Jewish mercantilism in the colonial Atlantic world. His book Revolutions in the Atlantic World: A Comparative History is one of the texts for this year's Bennion Workshop.

MOUNTAIN WEST CENTER
for REGIONAL STUDIES
College of Humanities & Social Sciences

UtahStateUniversity.